Preliminary Round Application: Main Points

※If you fail to satisfy the below conditions you may be disqualified, or be put at a disadvantage when judged.

Outline	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Schools from Japan, Korea, Taiwan and Singapore will submit a 1 page manga based on a preliminary round theme, these will be judged, and 33 schools (30 from Japan, 1 from Taiwan, 1 from Korea, 1 from Singapore) will be selected to participate in the main round. Adjustments might be made to increase the selection number if there are a large number of applicants. The schools from Korea, Taiwan and Singapore participating in the main round (August 3 (Sat) - 4 (Sun)) will create a manga within the time limit based on a theme announced during the semifinals.
Application Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students who are up to their third year of study in Japanese senior high schools, upper-secondary curriculums, senior high divisions of special assistance schools, specialized vocational high schools, and students from institutes who have a course term corresponding to senior high schools. As well as students in Korea, Taiwan, and Singapore who are in equivalent schools. Only one team can apply per school and each team should consist of 3-5 students and one teacher who is responsible for escorting the team. This is an inter-school competition, so only one entry per school is allowed. The participation of students who do not fit the above criteria will be determined by the host organization, upon discussion. If a team does not consist of 3-5 members, it may be disqualified.
Preliminary Round Theme	Please choose one theme from the two stated below and create your manga based on it Automatic (Machine) Operation / Super Volunteer
Presentation Method	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The manga should be created through the joint effort of all the students, and submitted on 1 sheet of B4 size paper (257mm x 364mm). Teams are free to choose the color, panel layout, and the tools used to create the works (including digital technology), however, please be sure to submit a work with a flat surface. Submissions must be original and unpublished. The usage of pictures and materials that would constitute a copyright violation is prohibited.
Application Method	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Please send your entry along with this application form to the address stated below. Please also stick a copy of the registration form on the center of the back of your application entry while ensuring that its orientation is correct. Postal costs are at the expense of the school, so please be aware that we cannot accept entries that require payment on delivery.
Application Deadline	9 June 2018 (Monday) ※We should receive your entries by this date
Judging Method	A group of professional manga artists will judge the preliminary rounds on June 20 (Thu), 2019 at the Otepia Kochi Library. During then, the 33 schools advancing into the main round and the 8 reserve schools (Japan 5, Korea 1, Taiwan 1, Singapore 1) will be decided. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Adjustments might be made to increase the selection number if there are a large number of applicants. The results of the preliminaries will be published on "Manga Kingdom Tosa Portal Site" (http://mangaokoku-tosajp/) after 17:00 on the same day.
Judges (Titles Omitted)	Keiichi Makino, Riki Kusaka, Moo, Nenpei, Meguru Hinomoto, Hiroo Kume (Chairperson of the Kochi Manga Group), Yoshihiro Iwagami (Director General of Kochi Manga Group Kujira)
Conditions for participating in the Final	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The host organization will arrange for accommodation as well as transport to Kochi Prefecture, where the main round will be held. Schools participating in the main round are required to pay the participation fee of 30,000 yen per person (including the accompanying staff). Only students who have been listed on the registration form are allowed to participate in the main round. We do not allow changes nor an increase with regards to the participating students. In the case of unavoidable circumstances, such as health issues, only a decrease in the participating student numbers will be allowed. If, due to a decrease in student numbers, the participating team fails to fulfill the minimum participatory qualifying criteria of 3 members, their participation will be at the discretion of the host organization.
Other	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Please be aware that the copyright of works created during the preliminary round and the main round will belong to the host organization, and the works will not be returned. We will send out a "confirmation of intent to participate in the main round" form by fax on (Thu) 20 June to schools that have passed the preliminaries. We seek your cooperation in checking it and confirming your attendance as soon as possible. The media will be reporting on and filming the main round. We ask for your understanding and cooperation regarding the broadcasting of this as a television program, the transmission of this online and the uploading of this onto our website etc., as well as the use of this in publications released by the competition convention.
Entries/ inquiries should be submitted to:	1-2-20 Marunouchi, Kochi City, Kochi Prefecture, 780-8570 JAPAN Manga Kingdom Tosa Promotional Association (Kochi Prefecture Manga Kingdom Tosa Promotion Division) Manga Koshien Office Tel. 088-823-9711 Fax: 088-823-9296 Email: manga-koshien@ken.pref.kochi.lg.jp

On the reverse side is a self-promotion form that will be sent to the scouts, so that they will be able to determine each students' skills in advance. Although it is not necessary to fill it in, we recommend that you do so.

Explanation of preliminary round entry	Please give a summary of your work within 60 words. This explanation may be uploaded onto the website alongside your submitted entry.

The 28th National Senior High School Manga Championships (Manga Koushien) Self-Promotion Form for Scouting Purposes (First Part)

To those entering the preliminaries

Scouts from publishing companies will be coming to the main round this year as well. Scouts will be watching every student closely at the competition arena, and those who catch their eyes will be approached by the publishing companies after the competition for a chance to receive coaching.

For those who will proceed to the main round

Scouts will look at this, therefore, please draw as many illustrations as possible in the Self-Promotion Space on the form below. There will also be a chance for students to submit a second self-promotion work for the scouts if they get selected to enter the main round of the competition. This work should be a manga or illustration, made on A4-sized manga manuscript paper. The work should be enclosed together with the notice that states that they passed the preliminaries (which will be sent out on June 20) and submitted to the "Manga Koushien" Officer in the Kochi Prefecture Manga Kingdom Tosa Promotion Department by 28 June 2019 (Fri).
